TALISKER WHISKY ATLANTIC CHALLENGE

The premier event in ocean rowing. A challenge that will take rowers more than 3,000 miles west from San Sebastian in La Gomera, Canary Islands, Spain, to Nelson's Dockyard, English Harbour, Antigua & Barbuda. The annual race begins in early December, with up to 30 teams from around the world taking part.

THE RACE

The Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge brings together teams from all walks of life united by the same objective: to take on the unique challenge of crossing an ocean in a rowing boat.

Teams battle with sleep deprivation, salt sores, and physical extremes inflicted by the race. Rowers are left with their own thoughts, an expanse of the ocean and the job of getting the boat safely to the other side.

RACE ORGANISERS

Atlantic Campaigns are the race organiser and owners of the Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge. Atlantic Campaigns staff have over 50 years of ocean rowing experience and an inherent dedication and passion for the sport.

Atlantic Campaigns see the Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge as a platform to nurture and create future greatness. The characters that take part become role models and sometimes even mentors for future teams.

Atlantic Campaigns' main consideration is safety, but the rowers' success and achievement of their dreams follow closely behind. Atlantic Campaigns pride themselves in being there from start to finish.

TITLE SPONSOR

Talisker Single Malt Whisky, a brand synonymous with rugged adventure, has been the official title sponsor of the race for seven consecutive years.

Talisker is the oldest distillery on the Isle of Skye, 'made by the sea' in one of the most remote, rugged, yet beautiful landscapes in Scotland. The founders of Talisker Whisky, the MacAskill brothers, rowed from Eigg to Skye to establish the Talisker distillery in Scotland almost 200 years ago.

THE MAN

Atlantic Titan is made up of just me, Rob Hamilton. I have always had a love for the ocean, travel and endurance events. I am an experienced scuba diver having passed my PADI scuba dive instructor course at the age of 18 and going on to complete a number of technical diving qualifications. My curiosity about the world and how far I can push myself led me to complete a master's in Near and Middle Eastern Studies at London's School of Oriental and African Studies, travel to nearly 50 countries and complete two ultra-mountain marathons.

In 2016, I achieved a lifelong ambition when I was accepted into the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst for training to become an Army officer. Soon after I started, however, I injured my knee (by literally killing off part of my femur), was permanently medically discharged from the Army and put on crutches. While I have dreamed of taking part in the Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge for over ten years, the injury certainly helped to motivate me. I plan to prove to myself and demonstrate to others that injury does not need to stop you from doing incredible things and having an adventurous life!

THE CHARITY

The Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge also presents a tremendous opportunity to raise money for an organisation which I have a very close relationship with. In 2018, I spent several months working for the Collateral Repair Project (CRP) in Amman, Jordan. The organisation helps refugees through emergency aid and community programmes such as English classes, after-school clubs and psycho-social support. I am hoping to raise at least £50,000 for this amazing organisation. The name, Atlantic Titan, was the idea of a friend who is a beneficiary of the organisation.

BOAT BRANDING

The rowing boat is the ultimate blank canvas - a floating billboard that will be shown around the world.

Preparing to row across the Atlantic Ocean takes time, training and money. On average the rowers aim to raise between €80,000-€100,000 per campaign.

The Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge offers potential sponsors, brands and ambassadors the opportunity to raise the profile and brand perception of their company on a national and international scale.

Sponsoring a team's challenge provides a platform for companies to align with a campaign that not only represents their core values as a business, but whose story could be seen by over 3 billion people worldwide.
